

Leveraging Your Real Estate: The Latest Strategies to Optimize Tax Savings

Wed., May 10, 2017 1-3:00pm

Are You Really Maximizing Your Tax Savings?

Cost Segregation is just the beginning. Recent legislation has expanded the scope and utility of engineering-based tax strategies, creating a veritable tool-box of techniques that may be employed effectively by the informed taxpayer. This workshop will explore strategies for mitigating your tax liability.

We will discuss:

- > Cost segregation basics
- > Powerful new legislation: tangible property regulations, PATH Act
- > Detailed, practical case studies
- > Dual focus on residential and commercial real estate

Property Owners, CFO's, controllers and accounting personnel encouraged to attend.

Learn how to make your asset more profitable!
